

Key Vocabulary – Features		Entertain
Coordinating conjunctions	Using and to link two main ideas together. They pulled and pulled at the turnip to get it out.
Exclamation marks	Especially in relation to speech to show emotion: what big eyes you have, grandma!
Finger spaces between words	Appropriate spacing, depending on size of writing.
Capital letters and full stops	To mark the beginning and end of sentences. Capital letters for the personal pronoun I and for names, places and days of the week.

Key Vocabulary – Features		Inform
Coordinating conjunctions	Using and to link two main ideas together. Badgers sleep in the day and look for food at night.
Question marks	Did you know?
Finger spaces between words	Appropriate spacing, depending on size of writing.
Capital letters and full stops	To mark the beginning and end of sentences. Capital letters for the personal pronoun I and for names, places and days of the week.

Key Knowledge

Text Types

- Story
- Description
- Poetry

Text Features

- Time sequenced

Other Style Ideas

- Focus on oral work first.
- Opportunities to read own work aloud.

Key Knowledge

Text Types

- Recount
- Letter
- Instructions

Other Style Ideas

- Writing frame to structure ideas in order.
- May include images .